

Silver Blades Junior Instructor Program Application

Can you answer yes to two of the three following questions?

- Have you passed ISI freestyle 6?
- Have you volunteered in the Findlay Silver Blades Student Instructor Program for at least 2 years?
- Have you completed 30 hours of volunteer time within our Student Instructor program?

If you are 16 years of age, in Group D and said yes to two of the three previous questions, then you are eligible to be a Junior Instructor for the Silver Blades Program.

Junior Instructors must:

- Be a team player and abide by all rules and regulations of the Silver Blades Figure Skating Club.
- Attend all coaching meetings.
- Apply to be a professional member of ISI and pay all applicable fees
- Apply for Liability insurance thru ISI and pay all applicable fees
- Complete a Background Check as required by ISI
- Complete Safe Sport training thru ISI or Learn to Skate USA
- Must obtain their bronze level judging certification thru ISI and pay all applicable fees
- Must be available to trial judge during test sessions and our annual competition
- Must be registered with Learn to Skate USA for the cost of $16. If over the age of 18 you will also have to submit for a background check for an additional cost.
- Must complete the basic certification exam that is free with your Learn to Skate USA.
- Must agree to be monitored by and meet with the Head Pro at least once a week.
- Must volunteer to assist on Group A Lessons at least once a week.

Junior Instructors

- Will be allowed to coach Group A and B students at a rate of $20 per hour. Once a skater passes into Group C, the Junior Instructor time has ended and the Head Pro will meet with the skater's parent(s)/guardian(s) to discuss further private instructor options.
